

Indiana's Telephone Privacy law has significantly reduced the number of unsolicited sales calls we have recieved since its introduction and we request that the FCC will not implement any proposal that would lessen Indiana's Telephone Privacy law protections.